

Travel Information and Schedule

Once you have booked your hunt dates it is time to make flight arrangements!

1. Book a flight to Fairbanks International Airport (FAI). Our hunt weeks run Sunday through Sunday. Please book your incoming flight to Fairbanks for Saturday evening, and your return flight for the following Monday night, no earlier than 9PM to allow for potential bad weather. Alaska weather is unpredictable; if your schedule allows for more time, please consider an extra day or a trip insurance policy that covers flight changes to assure you do not miss your scheduled return flight. There are many wonderful hotels and accommodations close to the airport.

-Alaska Airlines:

2. Pay for your scheduled flight with Wright's Air Service from Fairbanks to Umiat. Make sure you have your hunting dates available and let them know that you want the Alaska Arctic Adventures charter flight to Umiat. Wright's Air Service asks that you pay the $525.00 each way airfare 60 days prior to your flight.

3. Since you will be staying the night, Pikes Waterfront Lodge is a good option. As well as food, drinks, and lodging, they also have complimentary wireless, a fitness center, an aroma therapy steam room and a putting green. Please ask for the Alaska Hunting and Fishing rate of $195/night. (Normal cost $235). A complimentary shuttle is available from the main terminal of Fairbanks International airport to take you to the hotel, as well as to Wrights Air on the East Ramp the following morning. If you book with them make sure they know that you will need a next day shuttle to the East Ramp of the airport for your departure to Umiat.
